

Panic Part of Tragedy

ISTANBUL (UP)—Survivors of Turkey's worst sea disaster said today wild panic swept the overcrowded coastal ferry Uskudar before it capsized and sank Saturday in the Sea of Marmara.

Only 40 persons are known to have survived the sinking, which caused an estimated 200 deaths. The bodies of 81 victims have been buried in mass funerals, and the others are being sought.

The U.S. aid mission at Golecek assisted in caring for injured survivors.

It is unlikely that anyone will ever know how many were on the Uskudar. Hundreds of people had scrambled aboard the ill-fated ferry, many of them students traveling on passes.

The crowd was so dense, with scores of passengers forced to stand, that the captain pulled out 10 minutes early on the 20-mile trip from Izmit to Karamursel. About 100 would-be passengers missed the boat.

Turkey's Vangel, a student survivor, described the ferry passengers' frantic fight for life.

"The Uskudar was brim full," he said, "with no more room to sit anywhere. A crewman asked Capt. Mehmet Anel if he was going to sail."

"Sure," Anel replied, "in this weather (it was hot and windy) we'll sink if the boat stays at the landing." So the Uskudar left 10 minutes early.

"To about 15 minutes everything went well. Then water began filling the boat and the strong wind began rocking it, causing it to heel over. That was when the panic started. People rushed for the life savers."

The present U. S. trust territory of the Marshall Islands, in the South Pacific, was first occupied by Spain and Germany. After World War I, the islands were ceded to the Japanese.

Denemark Entry Wins

HOT SPRINGS (UP)—Emil Denemark's highly-favored Teri won the $3,200 Russellville Purse at Oaklawn Park Monday after trailing T. A. Grissom's Big Sweep most of the distance.

The five-year-old colt raced home with a length to spare after jockey Howard Craig took his mount inside as they entered the stretch. A photo at the finish declared B. H. Wise's Valdon second and Earl K. Carey's Johnny C. W., third.

The race, over a mile and 70 yards, was the first long distance event of the season here.

Teri paid $4.20, $3.20 and $2.00 while Valdon returned $0.00 and $3.00. Johnny C. W. paid $2.00. Lee Ken and Waco Seann combined for a slim $20.40 daily double.

Tech, State Play for Bid to NAIA Meet

LITTLE ROCK (UP)—Arkansas Tech's Wonder Boys and the Southern State Muleriders for the third straight year play tonight to decide who will make the trip to the NAIA tournament at Kansas City.

The Wonder Boys downed Arkansas A&M 68-54, while Southern State beat Arkansas State Teachers College 65-61 in the semifinals here Monday night.

Reserve Norris Fox hit a basket in the closing seconds for Southern State to build up a four-point lead, when the Bears threatened to tie up the game. The lead in the last few minutes varied from one to six points.

Southern's Steve Shieron netted 18 points, while Frank Dolan hit 11.

ASTC's Jim Swink hit 19, Monte Ingram, the AIC's leading scorer, hit 13.

Tech was in control of its game all the way, although A&M kept close part of the time. The Wonder Boys built up a quick 11 and a lead and didn't have any trouble.

But when the Tech second unit had trouble hitting, the first squad had to come back in for the second half. In the second period, they kept a lead of five to 10 points and ended up with a 39.4 shooting average.

Ronnie Kennett netted 16 points to pace the Wonder Boys. Harold Mobley took scoring honors for A&M with 20 points.

Arabs Tell Crowds of Merger Plans

DAMASCUS, United Arab Republic (UP)—President Gamal Abdel Nasser and Yemeni Crown Prince Mohammed Seif El Islam El Badli jointly announced Yemen's decision to join the TOUGH TUNISIAN—Tunisia's president, Habib Bourguiba, above, says all French forces must be removed from Tunisia before he'll resume negotiations with France over the recent bombing of Saktet Sidi Youssef. Tunisians will go underground if necessary to get rid of the French, he warns.

United Arab Republic to cheering thousands massed outside the state guest palace here Sunday.

Nasser coupled his praise for the decision by Imam Ahmed, ruler of the tiny Arab kingdom, to federate with the United Arab Republic with a new attack on the Arab federation of Iraq and Jordan.

Thousands of persons—including many visitors from Lebanon—cheered Nasser as he blasted the Iraqi-Jordanian federation as an "artificial Hashemite union" backed by "imperialism and Zionism."

It was Nasser's third attack on the union of King Faisal of Iraq and King Hussein of Jordan, both members of the Hashemite dynasty, since he arrived in Damascus last week.

Marshall Closer to Hockey Loop Title

NEW YORK (UP)—Willie Marshall of Hershey scored four points last week to move closer to his first American Hockey League scoring title.

Marshall, with an 88-point total, is 12 points ahead of teammate Dunc Fisher and Cleveland's Jimmy Moore, who are dedicated for second place. Marshall and Fisher each have eight games to play while Moore has 10.

Cal Gardner of Springfield is in fourth place with 74 points. Marshall, Fisher and Ehman are tied in goal scoring with 34, while Marshall is the undisputed leader with 54.

Johnny Bower of Cleveland seems to have clinched the goal-tending honors with his fine 2.22 average on 133 goals allowed in 60 games. Bobby Perreault of Hershey is a distant second with 2.72.

Bob Robertson of Providence is another probable department leader. The hard-hitting defenseman has a total of 151 penalty minutes, 16 more than teammate Ivan Irwin, who is second.

Schedule of Play in State Tournament

LITTLE ROCK (UP)—The state basketball tournament, which opens here tonight should be a bit of a toss-up — each of the eight teams has been beaten at least once by another squad in the tourney.

Texasarkana, for example, won 21 games. But it lost to Little Rock and Fort Smith. And the Central High Tigers split with the other three Big Eight entries, while Fort Smith lost among others, to Pine Bluff, which in turn split with Jonesboro. And so on.

Anyway you look at it, the tournament shapes up to be a good one. The Schedule:

Today's Games

Texasarkana vs. Leachville
Benton vs. Van Buren
Little Rock Central vs. Rogers
Jonesboro vs. Arkadelphia

Wednesday's Games

Conway vs. Forrest City
Fairview vs. Pine Bluff
Hope vs. Fayetteville

America's only car with a hideaway hardtop—the Ford Skyliner shown here with the fabulous new 4-passenger Thunderbird

It's like getting back 15¢ on every gas dollar!

Here's the biggest savings story of the year! And here's why.

It all starts with Ford's new dream of a drive called Cruise-O-Matic... the newest, most versatile, most automatic of them all! Two new driving ranges let you choose your starts for the road conditions that exist. For example, in most of the driving you'll do, you can take off lively as a spring lamb if you wish. And on snow, ice or any slippery road surface, with the extra driving range you can get rolling sure, steady and silky-smooth.

Now, team this all-new automatic with Ford's new Thunderbird-powered V-8 (with up to 300 hp) and you get as much as 15% better gas mileage, too! That's because a special gas-saving rear axle ratio is used to give you "built-in" overdrive economy.

And based on factory suggested retail delivered prices, a Cruise-O-Matic Ford is priced lowest of the low-price three with comparable equipment.

So, with Thunderbird go... down-to-earth gas savings... plus Ford's traditionally low prices and high resale return... you have the best reasons in the world to make yourself a deal on a new Cruise-O-Matic Ford. Why not see your Ford Dealer... tomorrow?

are "invading" the capitol during the next two days to push for labor-backed legislation. The AFL-CIO Building and Construction Trades Department is conducting the mass attack as part of an annual legislative conference.

The administration had ready for introduction a $1,350,000,000 program to stimulate home-building and slum clearance in (with moves to needle up the economy. The bill would allow home buyers to obtain government mortgages on more expensive homes than at present.

Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark.), chairman of the subcommittee looking into the FCC, said he will press for further postponement of pay-TV trials, if Congress fails to take a stand before adjournment.

Other congressional news:
Guard: Four governors protested to Congress that the Army's plan to cut its National Guard strength by 10 per cent would dangerously weaken the nation's defenses. The governors of Illinois, Maryland, Missouri and Montana told a House armed services subcommittee that all the 48 governors were opposed to the plan to reduce the Guard from 400,000 men to 300,000 by June 30, 1959.

Aid: The administration assured Congress it is "studying earnestly" the possibility of increasing the already-large percentage of foreign military aid purchases made in this country.

Bank: The Senate on a voice vote passed a bill to increase the lending authority of the Export-Import Bank by two billion dollars. Final approval was held up by a motion to reconsider.

Milk: A two-year extension in the School Milk Program was okayed on a voice vote of the Senate. The present authorization of 75 million dollars expires June 30.

Good Egg: House Speaker Sam Rayburn, gingerly clutching a hard-boiled egg with paper fuzz on top, promised with mock solemnity to leave egg-laying to the hens. The Texas Democrat was flanked by House Minority Leader Joseph W. Martin (R-Mass.) and Rep. Hubert H. Scudder (R-Calif.). All three, laughing as they stumbled over part of the "oath," were sworn in as members of the National Good Egg Club at a luncheon in the Capitol.

WASHINGTON (UP)—Republican congressional leaders today accepted the Eisenhower-Nixon agreement on presidential disability as a reasonable stopgap solution to the problem.

There was so much disagreement in Congress, however, about what the lawmakers should do to

DOROTHY DIX

Dear Dorothy Dix: Bryna and I have been keeping company for four years, and must postpone our wedding for another two or three years. I love her and, although she never says so in words, I believe she loves me. The reason she gives for not committing herself is that she doesn't want to make any promises until we can set a wedding date. Is she fair to me?

CLYDE
Dear Dorothy Dix: Your sweetheart has taken the only sane, safe and fair way of solving the problem of what to do when in love and unable to wed in the foreseeable future. She has set up an understanding between you that holds but doesn't bind. A long engagement is one of the most trying experiences anyone can go through. It's sort of a state of suspended animation; you're neither here nor there. Even love can grow anemic through the half rations of a drawn-out betrothal. Bryna's theory is to keep both of you technically in circulation to maintain the illusion of mystery and suspense and to free you from the possibility of marrying her at some far future date simply because she has become a habit. Obviously she wouldn't go along with the semi-engagement if she weren't in love with you. If your wedding does come off as scheduled, you can thank Bryna's common sense for the romance that comes with it. A long engagement would have killed the savor of a wedding cake that was kept on the shelf too long.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a freshman and have been invited to the Senior Prom. However, I'm not a very good dancer. Do you think it wise for me to go? MARGERY

Dear Margery: What, pass up

try to clarify procedure that doubts persisted as to whether they will do anything.

Some Democrats contended President Eisenhower could not reclaim his office after a period of disability, as provided in his understanding with Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

There was also disagreement in Congress as to whether any action is needed and, if so, whether a constitutional amendment—requiring approval by 38 state legislatures—or a mere law enacted by Congress is necessary for a permanent solution.

The White House announcement Monday said the agreement provides:

"In the event of inability, the President, would—if possible—so inform the vice president, and the vice president would serve as acting president, exercising the powers and duties of the office until the inability had ended."

"The President, in either event, would determine when the inability had ended and at that time would resume the full exercise of the powers and duties of the office."

the honor of going to a Senior Prom. Get after that poor dancing and make it good. You have two months; wonders can be accomplished in that time. If you don't have a friend to teach you, ask mom and dad to give you a course for your birthday or as an advance on next year's Christmas present. Have a gorgeous time.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Three friendly couples gathered for the evening several times a month. Two of the women would get together and chat for a whole evening, leaving the third one out of the conversation. The third woman, whom I shall call Sally, finally refused to accept another invitation that included only three couples. Now the two other women feel she had no cause to feel hurt and is being very selfish in breaking up the threesome. Sally is quite unhappy over the situation and wonders if she did the right thing. W. T.

Dear W. T.: I can't see where she could have taken any other course. No one likes a conversational freeze-out. If the other ladies miss her, she might give 'em another chance to provide three-way talk.

Hot Rods Are Victors

Owens Hot Rods dropped Gulf's
Bo-Diddles 23 to 22 last Saturday morning at Jones Field House in a real thriller. Both teams were red hot, and had to be for the Little Leaguers to drop in 45 points in only four or five minute quarters.
In the final 20 seconds with the Hot Rods leading 21 to 20, David Porterfield dropped in two free throws to put his team in the lead 22 to 21. Then after Charles Applegate bounced one off the rim, Ken Sail Yocum tipped it up and in with the buzzer sounding with the ball in the air, squeezing the Hot

Rods by 23 to 22. For the Hot Rods, Applegate was high with 9 followed by Yocum with 6 and Tompkins with 4. Walker led the Bo-Diddles with 8. Porterfield had 4 and Goad 4.

In the second game the League
Leading Opeland Coal Cats continued their winning ways, stopping a very good Hope Auto team 24 to 16. Murphy with 14 and Garner with 6 led the cats. Foster and Mac McClary had 5 each for the Dirt Dobbers.

Plans are being made to play a Little League tournament possibly early next week with all 4 teams participating to end the League season.

Thought For The Day
All the strength and force of man comes from his faith in things unseen. He who believes is strong;
he who doubts is weak. Strong con-

Bobcats in State Meet for 2nd Straight Year

Hope Bobcats basketball team, under the leadership of Coach Don Sawyer, will enter the state Class AAA tournament for the second straight year. They will tangle with Fayetteville, IAA runnerup team, at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday.
Playing in the state tournament will be four teams from the Big 8, eligible through round Robin play, and three top teams of the Double A districts. That gives a total of 16 teams in the tournament.

The Bobcats won the passport to the tournament by winning the AAA tournament held last week in Snackover. They defeated Arka-dolph in the finals and Fairview oasted Camden in the consolation game. These three teams will represent District 4AA at Barton Coliseum, March 4-8.

Here's how the Bobcats fared this season: played 26 games, won 19 and lost 7 for a 73% win average; scored 1415 points for a 55 points per game average while opponents were hitting 1173 for a 45% average.

Hope meshed 544 field goals for an average of 21 per game, made 327 free throws out of 494 attempts for a 66% average and fouled 377 times during the season for a 14.5 per game average.

In all games played this season,
regular season play and tournaments, Jerry Franks led the Bobcats scoring with 305 points. David Watkins was second with 284, John Graves had 228, Lynn Wiggins 202,
Larry Bruce 152, Jimmy May 145,
Gary Don Formby and Bill Hair
42 each, Tommy Polk 28, Terry Don Thurman 17 and Dalton Hal-field 10.

The Star's sports department has gone back a few years to bring basketball fans up to date on how the Bobcats made out in the past:

In 1937, with Wayne Taylor as coach, Hope won the district 7W title with a 84-45 victory over Nashville. However, the Bobcats lost out in their game in the state tournament by blowing a 16 point lead and taking a 47-42 licking from White Hall. Last year's tournament was held in Jonesboro and was won by Rogers, one of this year's tourney favorites.

In 1956 Taylor was coach and the Bobcats lost to Nashville in the finals of the district 64-62. The Scrappers went to the state tourney and they, too, lost in the first round.

In 1955 we had Byron Thompson as coach and lost to Prescott 64-47 in the finals of district play.
Thompson was also coach in 1954 and won the district crown with a 67-61 win over DeQueen.

In 1953, Hope won the district title with a 69-48 triumph over Arkadelphia with Joe Eisminger at the helm. Joe was here in 1952 also, but lost to Gurdin in the quarter-finals of the district, 45-38.

Clyde Trickey was at Hope in 1950-51. In '51, the DeQueen Leopards eliminated Hope in the semi-finals 40-27 and went on to win the district with a 34-30 victory over Texarkana. This year of 1953 rates the Razorbacks as the best team in the state since they just captured the Big 8 title. In 1950, Gurdin beat Hope in the quarterfinals.

In 1948 we had Jack Hopkins as coach and won the district title with a 52-30 win from Texarkana.
This was the first year of district 7W.

In 1948, the district was classified as 10A, and Texarkana beat Hope 42-30 in the opening round.
Magnolia came through to take the crown from the Razorbacks, 50-22.

In the 11 year period from 1948 through 1958, the Bobcats have won the district championship five times and beaten in the finals twice. That, of course, is the best record in the district, and shows the calibre of coaches and players that have graced the halls of Hope High school.

But, as Rose said, "we've got to quit depending on other teams
to help us." Several times in recent weeks, Arkansas has stayed in the race only because other conference contenders have also been upset the same night.

Rose said he "sure would like to win this one, but I wouldn't bet a nickel we will."

He said he was "thankful" his team would be a full strength for the game but "we'll need a full performance from people like Freddie Grim."

Grim, the team's top scorer, has spelled the difference in several games with his accurate outside shooting.

Porker Win Can Cinch Tie for SW Title

FAVETTEVILLE (UP)—Tonight's the night for the Southwest Conference, title-conscious Arkansas Razorbacks and Coach Glen Rose said he "wouldn't bet a nickel" that the Porkers will beat Texas here tonight.

The Razorbacks, with an 8-5 conference record are back in the title chase as a result of their beating of Baylor Saturday but have their backs to the wall.

It's the season finale for Arkansas and could just about wrap up the SEC crown if they could get past the Longhorns and the dangerous SMU Mustangs are beaten by lowly Baylor at Waco tonight.

But, as Rose said, "we've got
to quit depending on other teams
to help us." Several times in recent weeks, Arkansas has stayed
in the race only because other conference contenders have also been upset the same night.

Rose said he "sure would like
to win this one, but I wouldn't bet a nickel we will."

He said he was "thankful" his
team would be a full strength for
the game but "we'll need a full

eral games with his accurate out-

CHAPTER XX

"I didn't even say I was here as a police officer. You pulled a badge first. Matter of fact I'm off duty. Let's say I'm here at the moment, as a citizen who is a friend of Miss Henderson."

Tasman suddenly spoke up, grunted. "She's a Spick, her real name is Hondura."

"Lardy, I don't like my friends called Spicks. And for a girl you claim you never saw before you certainly know a lot about her." I stood up. "This isn't an official visit, although Miss Henderson has made a complaint with the precinct. If you annoy her once more I'll return and run you both in for disorderly conduct or jostling — let a judge determine the law."

"The law states—" Flatts began.

"You've already hit a cop."

"In self-defense," Flatts chimed in fast. "And I have a witness."

"Even in self-defense it might not be healthy for you and your witness around the precinct house. Slick to your phone taps. Lay off Miss Henderson or I'll scramble your features." I started for the door.

"Are you threatening me, Win-lino?" Flatts called out.

"Yeah, I'm telling you both to stop it or I'll work you over."

Flatts cupped one ear. "What did you say?"

"That I'll beat the slap out of you if you keep annoying Miss Henderson. Did you hear that or do you want a free sample?"

I turned toward him and he flicked his hand at the desk, must have turned on a switch, that cold smile engraved on his wise-guy face. The office was suddenly filled with the playback of our conversation. I was astonished at how shrill my voice sounded. I said loudly, above the recording.

"It still goes. You'll be listening to that in a hospital!"

Flatts cut the playback, said, "I trust you have strong arches, Win-lino."

Tasman got to his feet as I passed him, I put my open hand against his big face and pushed, sending him back into his chair. I told him, "Don't bother to get up, I walked out."

I walked along Centre Market Place, the narrow block behind Headquarters, window shopping the gunsmith and police tailor stores in the ground floor of the tenements. Then just to say I'd been there, I went across the street to have coffee and a sandwich in Flanagan's, where the brasserie. There was a breezy, netting lieutenant who'd given us lectures on narcotics at Detective Training School sitting by himself. He motioned for me to come over. I was surprised he remembered my name. I couldn't think of his.

We chewed the fat for a while. I asked if he'd ever heard of Data, Inc. and he hadn't. I told him a little about the run-in I had with them, but didn't mention hitting them.

"He said, 'Got to be careful with these birds, Dave. In their line they need pull, and not only around City Hall, but up in Albany and in Washington. You see, there isn't much work in the private snook racket, so the ones that are able to get something going have to be able to supply all kinds of inside information or close shop. That means they must have connections. But you don't have to worry, the last thing these guys want is publicity. Be different if you belted the guy, but from what you tell me he's bluffing you. What you got there, a bolt on your cheek?"

"I took the subway uptown and rode Rose's bell. After giving me the eye through the door peeper she let me in. She was wearing a kind of purple cotton slack outfit that could have passed for pajamas. As always she gave me the feeling of a firecracker waiting for a match. We both sat on the couch and she asked if I'd seen what had happened and I told her about following the guy to Data, Inc. and that I thought she wouldn't be bothered any more. The couch was comfortable and I thought it was nice of Rose to dress for me. And suddenly I felt very tired, all that silly road work, then rushing around Brooklyn, then running downtown. My head was tired from

Ponsett Sheriff Seeks Robbers

WALDENBURG (UP)—The Ponsett County Sheriff's office continued its search today for two youths wearing masks fashioned of diapers who held up a country store late Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith, who operate a grocery four miles south of here on highway 14, said the youths came into the store armed with pistols and ordered them to produce "all your money."

Smith said the hold-up men took between $150 and $200 and fled in their car.

Ponsett County Sheriff C. T. Sullivan said two suspects in the robbery have been cleared and released.

worrying so much, about Wales and about Mary and now about my job. I wanted to stop thinking for a while.

Rose fingered the cut on my cheek, her hands light and soothing as she washed it with some stuff. I told her not to bother and I was so comfortable I near closed off. She told me, "I can't tell you how much I appreciate this. I don't know why I called you at home. But I was so angry and when they said you weren't at the police station, why I—"

"This is my day off," I said, closing my eyes.

"Oh, I'm sorry. I never would have asked you to work."

"Doesn't matter, I was stewing around the house anyway, wanted to get out," I said, half-aloud.

"Getting so I can't stand our place. My wife is always hitting on me. She doesn't like my being a cop."

"She must be afraid you'll get hurt."

"Her uncle has some crummy job for me in his joint. The thing is, we can't even talk about it without clanking. I don't know."

"I kept mumbling on and on, sitting there with my head against the wall in a daydream."

"The next thing I knew she was shaking me gently. I sat up and opened my eyes. She was giving me the big eyes, an almost sad smile on her cute face. 'Would you like something to drink?'"

STRONG SPIDER'S SILK

A rope of spider's silk one-inch thick would hold up 74 tons. It would be three times as strong as a one-inch rope made of iron.

Recluse's Home Doesn't Look Same

HOTHERSALL, England (UP)—Bachelor recluse Tom Walker, 53, looked tearfully at his home today and said, "It just doesn't look the same any more."

and it doesn't, either.

Walker's relatives descended on his home Sunday and carted off 15 tons of junk he had been collecting since his mother died and left him alone 10 years ago.

Walker's brother, Henry, used a tractor to cart away five tons of rotting timber stored inside the house.

Another brother trucked away more than 1,000 empty cans. Other relatives carried out five broken bicycles, old auto tires, boxes, old clothes, shoes and thousands of newspapers.

Walker stood by sadly as the junk was heaped 10 feet high and set afire.

The relatives moved in when they found Walker could get to bed only through a narrow passage between the junk packed into every nook and cranny of his bedroom.

Hints Ike, Nixon Have Understanding

WASHINGTON (UP)—The White House hinted today that it might make public President Eisenhower's "clear understanding" with Vice President Richard M. Nixon on what to do in case of presidential disability.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty was asked by reporters whether the administration plans to make public the arrangement which Eisenhower disclosed at his news conference last week.

"I haven't any comment on it at this time," Hagerty said, emphasizing the words "at this time."

Asked whether that meant he would have something to say "later," Hagerty replied: "I think I might, yes."

The President is reported to have agreed delegate his full power and duties to Nixon if he considers he is unable to carry on as president.

GALLEGO'S RETURNS HOME

CARACAS, Venezuela (UP)—Former President Romulo Gallegos was greeted by 7,000 persons Sunday when he returned after nine years of exile in Mexico.

Gallegos, who was ousted by a military coup in 1948 that paved the way for the government of former Dictator General Marcos Perez Jimenez, brought with him the remains of his wife, who had died in exile.

HORSE OF A DIFFERENT COLOR—A veteran cortege mount, left, watches new equine recruits as they're trained to pull a caisson at the Army's Third Infantry Caisson Section headquarters, Fort Meyer, Va. Black horses are slated to replace the traditional gray animals for some ceremonial duties at Arlington National Cemetery.

May Consider Laws Against Mass Picketing

WASHINGTON (UP)—Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) said today his Senate Rackets Committee may consider legislation to deal with mass picketing of a strike investigation.

The Arkansas Democrat and other committee members appeared prepared and rested in that aspect of the marathon strike during the first three days of hearings last week.

They rescheduled more testimony along that line when the inquiry resumes today. Scheduled as witnesses were Robert Burkhardt of Detroit, an international representative of the AFL-CIO United Auto Workers Union, and John Konec of the Sheboygan, Wis., UAW local, a picket captain. The strike has been in effect nearly four years.

Burkhardt was identified by witnesses last week as one of the union leaders who appeared to be directing picket lines in front of the Sheboygan plant of the Kohler Co., a plumbing fixture manufacturer.

The company claims illegal mass picketing by more than 2,000 union members prevented non-strikers who wanted to work from entering the plant.

Mass picketing is forbidden in some states. Most if not all states have laws that might preclude interference of the type charged to the UAW. The matter is not dealt with directly by the Taft-Hartley Labor Law.

The possibility arose meanwhile that the stormy hearings, marked by sharp partisanship between GOP and Democratic committee members, will turn into a marathon affair stretching over weeks.

The committee, because of sharp political conflict over procedure, has barely scratched the surface of its witness list totaling about 70.

a year of record growth

The Annual Report of Texas Eastern, just released, recounts many new records for the company... expansion of its facilities... increases in sales and revenues... and diversification of its operations.

Delivery and sale of natural gas to distributors for use in millions of homes and thousands of factories in Midwestern, Appalachian and Eastern Seaboard states exceeded 548 billion cubic feet—greatest in the company's history—compared with 497 billion cubic feet in 1956.

Consolidated net income for the company and subsidiaries for 1957 amounted to $2.52 per share on 8,372,510 common shares, compared with $2.04 per share on the 7,218,100 common shares outstanding at the end of 1956.

Diversification keyed the company's non-gas activities. In August, the company acquired La Gloria Oil and Gas Company as a wholly-owned subsidiary. La Gloria explores for and produces oil and gas, operates a large natural gas processing plant and one of the nation's most modern refineries. Texas Eastern completed the reconversion of the Little Big Inch pipeline as a common carrier of clean petroleum products; and this system, one of the nation's largest, is now in operation.

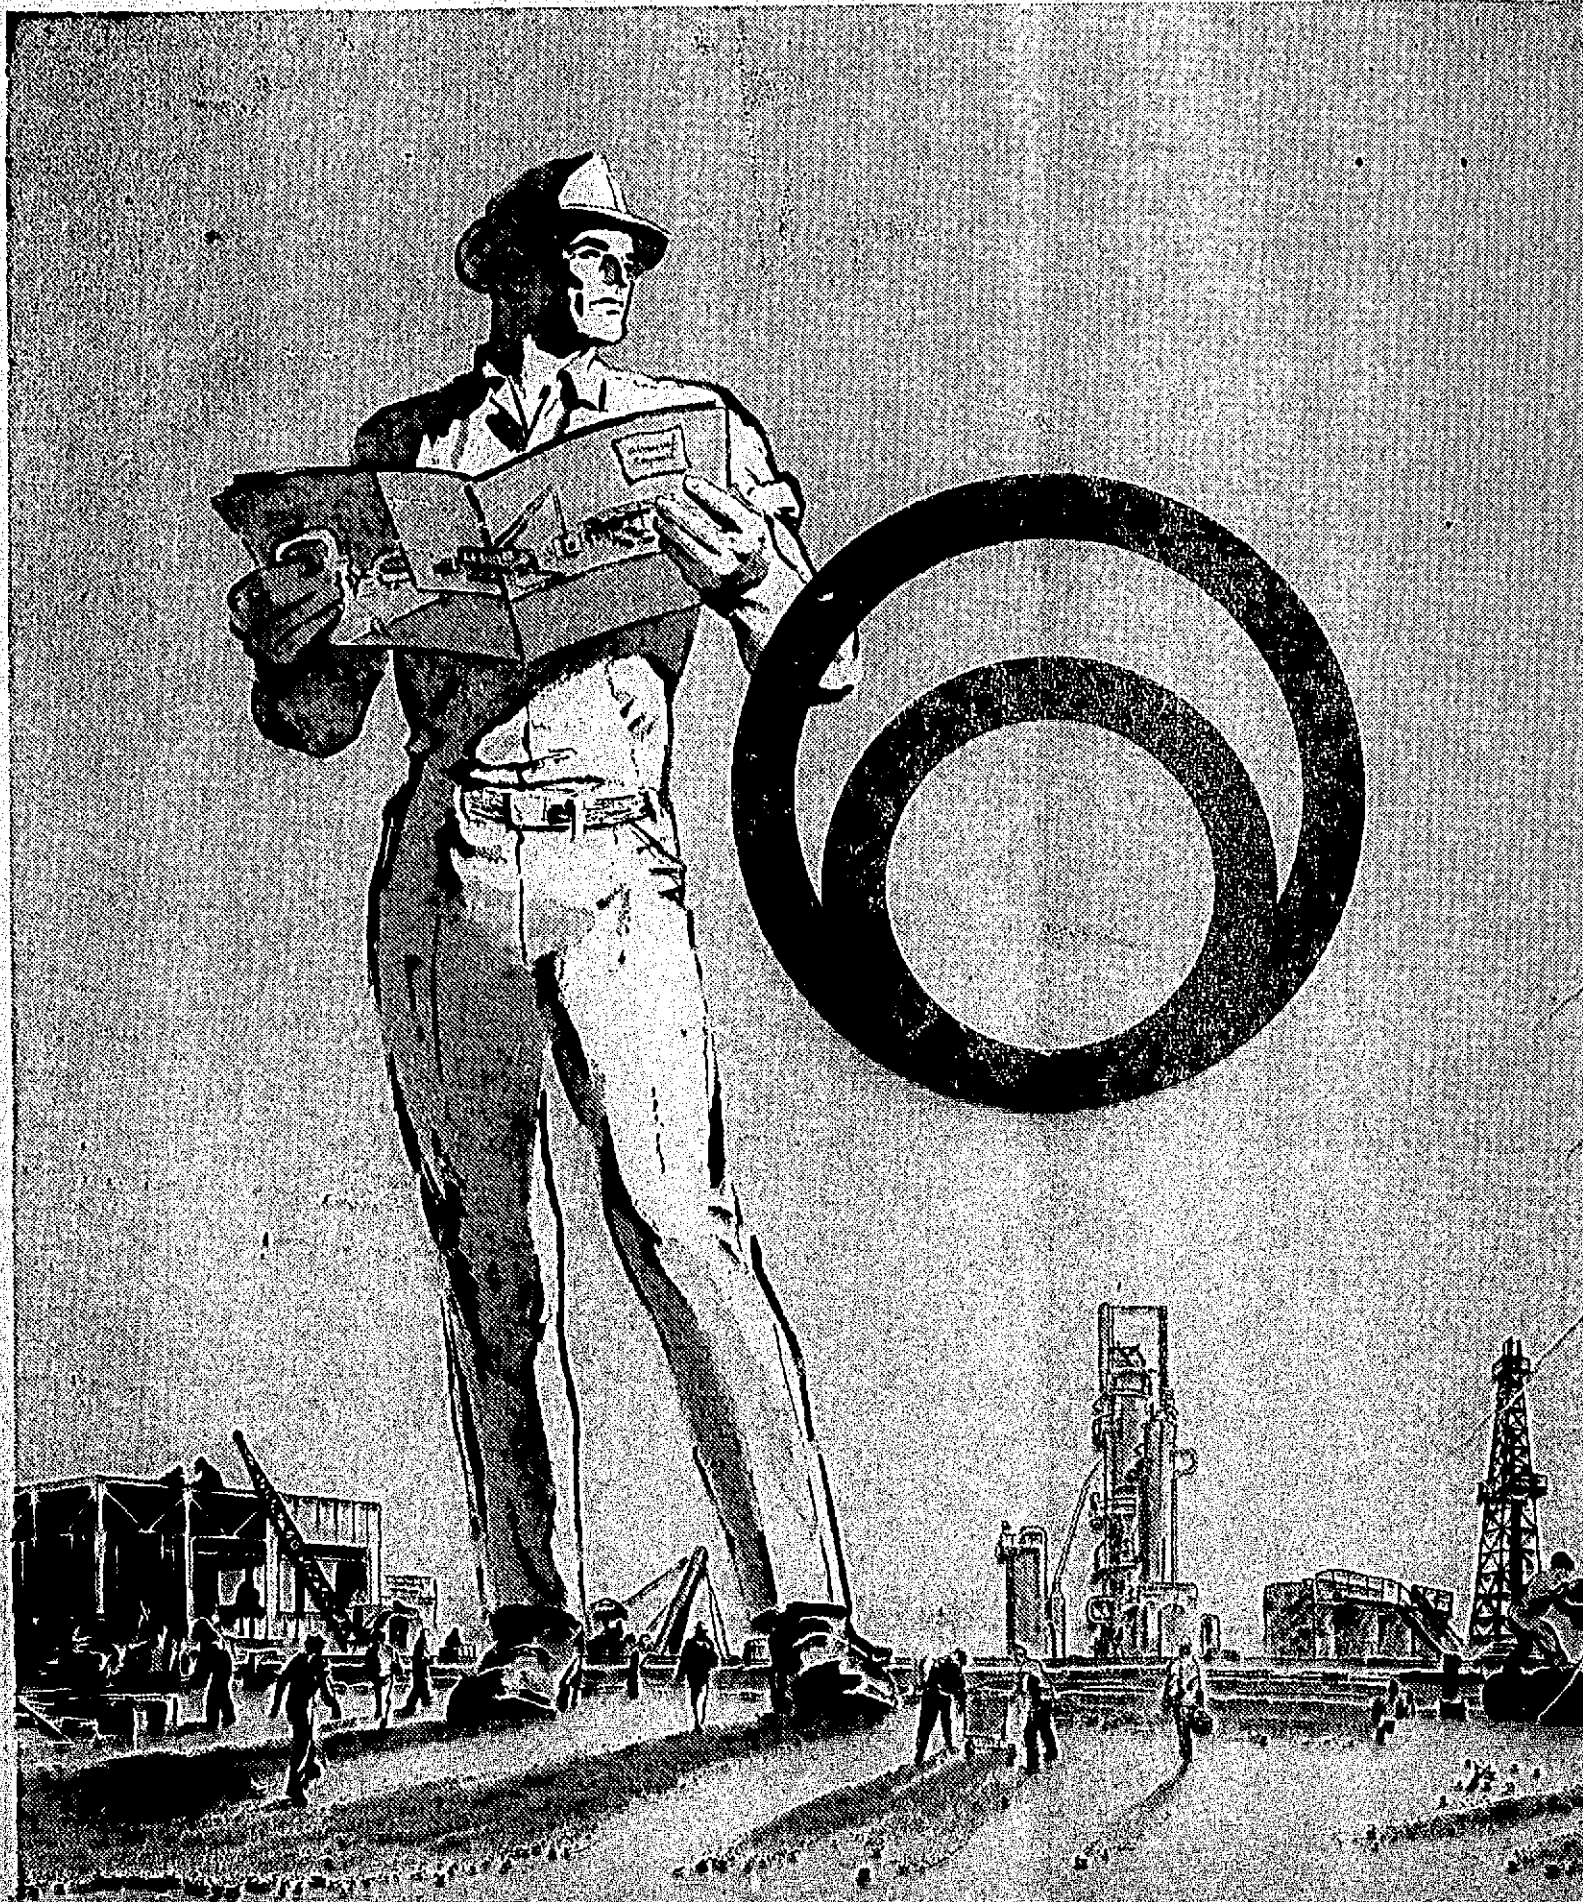

Natural gas reserves owned or controlled under contract were substantially increased during the year. At December 31, 1957, reserves were estimated by the company at 12,158,200,000,000 cubic feet, compared with 10,843,500,000,000 at the close of 1956. New sources of reserves available to Texas Eastern are being developed in Texas and Louisiana.

Production activities carried out by the company and its subsidiaries reached record levels. Total interest in gas production for 1957 amounted to 34,998,400,000 cubic feet, and in oil and products production to 3,091,727 barrels. Drilling and exploration activities were being carried on in fourteen states at year-end.

Thus, in 1957, Texas Eastern built solidly for the future... placing itself in position to serve the nation more effectively, and to assure a dependable and continuing supply of natural gas and petroleum products.
